

On the south shore of Naples Bay

An elegant sanctuary for everyday living.

An extraordinary setting for everyday adventures.

Nestled within a pristine natural setting just minutes from Downtown Naples, Florida's leading homebuilder is creating a colorful update of classic coastal living.

Inspired by the timeless architecture and traditions of Old Naples, elegant new Minto homes overlook miles of scenic kayak and hiking trails. With over half of the 2,400 acres dedicated to lakes, nature preserves and natural habitat, combined with outdoor-inspired amenities, The Isles of Collier Preserve is an extraordinary new community where the magic of Old Naples and unspoiled nature still coexist.

In the early 20th century, advertising tycoon Barron Gift Collier came to Southwest Florida and discovered a place where families could enjoy a good life in a setting of unparalleled natural beauty.

Inspired by the promise of this land, he bought more than a million acres and was instrumental in creating Collier County.

Today, on the south shore of Naples Bay, Minto is creating the Isles of Collier Preserve, a community that honors Barron Collier's vision for the land and its promise as a place where man and nature can live in harmony.

At Minto, we've been creating award-winning homes and communities throughout Florida for over half a century. Recognized for delivering inspired lifestyles within innovative, green living environments, our award-winning designs and energy-efficient features offer incomparable new home values.

Nature abounds

Entertaining with friends

Within the tranquil confines of this private sanctuary, life unfurls along tree-shaded lanes, through ancient stands of cypress, pine and mangrove, and down scenic kayak and hiking trails winding through acres of unspoiled natural habitat.

A nature-inspired clubhouse is the center of lifestyle and wellness amenities that celebrate life in the great outdoors. Adjoining the community on the shores of Rookery Bay Nature Preserve, a private yacht club and marina offers available memberships and deepwater access to the Gulf of Mexico.
