Value you can count on.

Your hard-earned money buys so much more in Florida.

For starters, there is no state income tax, and the property taxes are relatively low in comparison to the rest of the nation. In addition, permanent Florida residents may reduce their real estate taxes by reducing the taxable value on their property by applying and qualifying for a variety of exemptions including a $50,000 Homestead Exemption for taxable values greater than $50,000 and up to $75,000.

LakePark at Tradition offers you some of the best real estate values in one of the best areas in the state of Florida. Life’s greatest rewards await you at LakePark, with the #1 active adult community in Florida!
